POPULAR DATABASES AT SMLR

The following databases allow you to find articles (many in full-text formats) from journals by author, title, subject, keywords, and other criteria. The complete list of Rutgers Libraries' databases is available on the RUL Research Resources page. Most of these databases contain useful help screens; however you may request assistance and training from Eugene or Donna at the Carey Library.

Academic Search Premier is a multi-disciplinary, full-text database designed specifically for academic institutions. With a valuable and large collection of peer-reviewed full-text journals, Academic Search Premier offers critical information from many sources and contains scholarly collections with full-text coverage for nearly all academic areas of study. Rutgers Restricted Access

Business and Industry is a multi-industry business database with a global focus on company, product, and industry information. The database covers all manufacturing and service industries and can be used to locate strategic data; profile companies, products, and brands; track industry and product sales; identify industry trends, forecasts, and R&D expenditures; track competitors, customers, and suppliers; verify such business events as contracts, joint ventures, and mergers and acquisitions; and find information about corporate strategies, marketing campaigns, and new business opportunities. Rutgers Restricted Access

Business Source Premier covers most business and management topics including accounting, banking, economics, finance, international trade, marketing, and public administration. It contains the full-text or abstracts of articles from thousands of scholarly and professional publications, academic journals, and trade magazines. Rutgers Restricted Access

BNA Labor and Employment Law Library. A complete resource for cases, guidance, and news in all major areas of the field: fair employment practices, individual employment rights, Americans with disabilities, wages and hours, labor-management relations, collective bargaining, and labor arbitration. Available only in the Carey Library.

BNA Human Resources Report. This weekly newsletter alerts you to important employee relations trends and developments--upcoming laws, regulations, and innovative employer practices, as well as the latest economic statistics and coverage of selected international developments. The archives go back to 1996. Available only in the Carey Library

BNA Labor Relations Week. Follow major labor relations issues and key labor law developments with this weekly newsletter. Archives go back to 2003. Available only in the Carey Library

BNA Occupational Safety and Health Reporter. For full news coverage and documentation of federal and state occupational safety and health programs, standards, legislation, regulations, enforcement, and court and agency decisions, rely on the resource that OSHA officials themselves use. Available only in the Carey Library

BNA Workplace Immigration Report. A bi-weekly newsletter that provides original reporting on workplace immigration news developments, federal and state legislation and regulations, and immigration enforcement actions in various industries. Online & print. Available only in the Carey Library.

CIAO: Columbia International Affairs Online provides access to the literature of theory and research in international affairs. CIAO incorporates: Working papers, conference proceedings, texts from selected journals, summaries and selected full text of selected books, selected full-text policy briefs from major organizations. Rutgers Restricted Access

Directory of Open Access Journals \(DOAJ\) <http://www.doaj.org/>

This service covers free, full text, quality controlled scientific and scholarly journals. They aim to cover all subjects and languages.

EconLit Produced by the American Economic Association, EconLit indexes and abstracts more than 750 international economic journals. EconLit source material includes journal articles, essays, research papers, books, dissertations, book reviews, and working papers. Rutgers Restricted Access

Factiva is published by Dow Jones and thus provides articles from leading business newspapers, magazines, trade journals, newsletters, and television and radio transcripts. Rutgers Restricted Access

Globalization and Labor Standards \(GALS\)

<http://www.laborstandards.org/>

The GALS Bibliographic Library contains abstracts of recent law journal articles exploring international labor standards and rights in the global economy.

Google Scholar

<http://scholar.google.com/>

Google Scholar is a search engine, not a database, but it can be a useful tool for locating academic articles and books. Search results link to Rutgers databases when used on campus.

ILO Databases

<http://www.ilo.org/public/english/support/lib/resource/ilodatabases.htm>

Over 30 databases are available free from the International Labour Organization, including the three below.

ILO Labour Force Surveys Online

<http://www.ilo.org/dyn/lfsurvey/lfsurvey.home>

Labor Force Surveys by country can be found at this site, developed by the ILO Library. A Labour Force Survey is a standard survey of work-related statistics. Statistics and meta-data for some countries are also available from the LABORSTA database: <http://laborsta.ilo.org/>

ILO Labordoc \(ILO: 1965- \)

<http://labordoc.ilo.org/>

Produced by the International Labour Organization (ILO), Labordoc is a bibliographic database of documents catalogued and abstracted by the ILO Library since 1965. It provides worldwide coverage of reports, studies, and journal articles on labor relations, labor law commentaries, employment, working conditions, economics, cooperatives, intermediate technology, and project evaluation.

ILO Statistics Portal

<http://www.ilo.org/public/english/bureau/stat/portal/index.htm>
